

Here's to the Next Show

By Danny Schwarze

As I look out on all of you there
Let me tell you what I see
I see family and friends
Who are with me again
As I wander around aimlessly
I see hands that have patted my back
And arms that have held me tight
So let me raise up my glass
And thank you for being here tonight

Here's to the good
And the bad times, too
The long twisting paths that we tread
Here's to the folks
That have lifted us up
Without them, we're better off dead
Here's to saying, "Goodbye"
And here's to saying, "Hello"
May the whiskey and wine continue to flow
And here, here's to the next show

And though we're often apart
Let's cherish the time we have now
For we don't really know when
We'll be together again
But we know it'll happen somehow
Until then, we'll take what we get
We'll hold onto the memories
And when you raise up your glass,
Take a moment and think of me

Here's to the good
And the bad times, too
The long twisting paths that we tread
Here's to the folks
That have lifted us up
Without them, we're better off dead
Here's to saying, "Goodbye"
And here's to saying, "Hello"
May the whiskey and wine continue to flow
And here, here's to the next show

Here's to the next show

So I stand up here and I sing
Of better times coming our way
And though we'll never forget,
The sun will set
And rise on a brand new day
Together, we can see this through
Whatever tomorrow may bring
So raise up your glasses, lift up your voices and sing

Here's to the good
And the bad times, too
The long twisting paths that we tread
Here's to the folks
That have lifted us up
Without them, we're better of dead
Here's to saying, "Goodbye"
And here's to saying, "Hello"
May the whiskey and wine continue to flow
And here...

Here's to the good
And the bad times, too
The long twisting paths that we tread
Here's to the folks
That have lifted us up
Without them, we're better of dead
Here's to saying, "Goodbye"
And here's to saying, "Hello"
May the whiskey and wine continue to flow
And here, here's to the next show
